

Directions

Undergraduates who have not registered for the past two semesters (excluding summer session) are placed on inactive status. To return to active status and be able to register for classes, you must fill out this application for readmission. If you were academically suspended, contact the advising and academic services office of the college which is home to your primary major of interest. This form is not for graduate students. Note: Readmission and return from leave of absence require a number of reviews and approvals, plan accordingly.
